Ravi,

Brenda forwarded your email to me regarding your experience at Liz Claiborne. I must tell you that I'm very impressed by your professionalism and the obvious passion that you have for your work. We all knew that you were a knowledgeable and capable consultant, but very few people have the professional savvy that you demonstrate.

Congratulations on your success at Liz. You worked hard, did a tremendous job, and I am personally very, very proud to have you as a member of the DataProfit team!

Happy New Year,

Mike
